

Registration for the 2017 International Meeting in Mexico City is now open. Register and get other attendance planning information at www.lawandsociety.org/MexicoCity2017/2017-attendance.html.

The Islamic Law and Society Collaborative Research Network (CRN), co-convened by Professors Tamir Moustafa and Intisar Rabb, coordinates Islamic law sessions and runs a year-long listserv for the community of scholars taking a law and society approach to questions of Islamic law. To propose Islamic law sessions at this year's Annual Meeting, to join the community, or to get announcements about ongoing activities with Islamic law at LSA, contact us at afournier@law.harvard.edu.
